PILI, Camarines Sur, Philippines — After attending a traditional prewedding ceremony, 13 people, including the bride-to-be and two children, were killed when the truck they were riding in fell off a mountain road in San Fernando town, Camarines Sur province, on Saturday afternoon.

Forty-one others were injured, according to police.

The would-be bride, 15-year-old Bea Lucelo, was traveling with her family and friends in a Foton truck owned by the local government of San Fernando after visiting her fiancé's place when the accident happened.
